Rules and regulations for Erasmus + students' meetings abroad

Our school wishes that the Erasmus + meetings will provide a long lasting and Global Experience for the participant students and teachers.

These meetings, including the travel, are regarded as part of the participant school´s educational program, therefore the participant student is bound to the following rules and regulations during their journey abroad:

- Every participant and their parent or guardian agree that they have read and understood the Erasmus + Student Travel Abroad Terms and Conditions issued with the Official Brochure of Program. https://erasmus-plus.ec.europa.eu/sites/default/files/2025-11/programme-guide-2026_it.pdf

- Students are expected to participate fully in the program as dictated by their home school, host school, teachers, teacher's assistants, and tour escorts and to be on time for schedule activities, buses, guided tours, etc.

- Drugs are absolutely and completely outlawed. Students who break this rule will be sent home with no escort at their parents' expense with no refund given.

- The use of alcohol is strictly prohibited during the program. Students who break this rule will be sent home with no escort at their parents' expense with no refund given.

- Participants agree to not get any tattoos or piercings during the program. Students who break this rule will be sent home with no escort at their parents' expense with no refund given.

- Participants are expected to behave and dress appropriately during the course of the program. Please note that even while visiting a tourist area, participants are expected to maintain a suitable behavior and respect the host country cultural norms, regulations and traditions. Before departure, your school will provide a cultural information regarding the country to be visited.

- Students are allowed to leave the hotel or host family´s home in their free time during the day in groups of three or more, never alone. Students must let their organizing teacher or host family know at all times of their whereabouts.

- Those not associated with the trip are not allowed in the student´s hotel rooms or host family homes. Students who break this rule will be sent home with no escort at their parents' expense with no refund given.

At no time should any of the participants forget that they are guests in another country, and they should act as mature representatives of their country of origin.

Students who break these rules will be sent home with no escort at their parents' expense with no refund given.
I have read, understood, and agreed with the rules and terms of Erasmus + Travel Abroad.

All signatures are required.
